ARC Receives Accolades

INDUCTED INTO BUSINESS HALL OF FAME AND VOTED HOMETOWN FAVORITE IN 2018

In Fall 2018, ARC Federal Credit Union was recognized with two separate awards. The Blair County Chamber of Commerce inducted ARC into their prestigious Blair Business Hall of Fame on October 15th. Only four organizations were inducted from the many applicants. The inductees must have been able to show how they helped improve the business climate of Blair County through their business practices and involvement with the community. CEO Vic Gioiosa and Chairman of the Board of Directors Matt McConville accepted the award on behalf of ARC at a ceremony held at the Blair County Convention Center.

The following month, ARC Federal Credit Union was voted the Altoona Mirror's Hometown Favorite Bank. The annual contest received over 100,000 votes this year from Mirror readers for businesses in 59 categories. ARC was honored to have been nominated by readers of the Altoona Mirror, along with three banks and one other credit union. At a ceremony at The Casino on November 8th, Marketing Coordinator Liesl Kapfhammer accepted the award on behalf of ARC.
